

Researching Employers

Knowledge is power! It's crucial to research an employer before you apply for a position, before you interview, and before you accept an employment offer.

Things to Know Before an Interview:

Company's industry

What the company does

Their major clients, products, and/or services

The names of some of the company's executives, i.e. CEO, President, etc.

Who is in charge of hiring for the position you are seeking

Where to Find Information:

Company's website

Handshake

Glassdoor

LinkedIn

Indeed.com
